CCP ANNOUNCES NEW REGULATIONS
CONCERNING GOVERNMENT WORKERS

PROVIDES JOBS FOR UNEMPLOYED -- Wen-hui Pao, 5 Oct 49

The Military Control Commission and the People's government of Shang-hai have issued a joint directive concerning workers of the former government. The following gives the main points of the directive.

1. Those without means of livelihood shall be called back to the agency in which they were formerly employed and helped with work or a chance to study.
2. Those who have found employment are encouraged to remain in their present positions.
3. Those dismissed because of age or weakness, and without means of support, shall be given light work to perform.
4. Those dismissed for crimes not too heinous shall be allowed to register; if they are repentant, they shall be helped to self-support.
5. Any agency undergoing reorganization must send surplus workers to rural districts and schools set up for them; place promising young persons in schools to be trained for service to the nation; and train workers deserving to be retained with a view to future employment in said agency or elsewhere.

The directive further states that all dismissed workers, except those with special skills, who enter training classes shall be given allowances on same terms as other students.

NO BEGGARS IN PEI-P'ING -- Nan-ch'iao Jih-pao, 17 Oct 49

Civil authorities are taking measures to remove beggars from the streets of the capital city and put them to work. In July, 275 able-bodied beggars were
